Owosso youth to throw first pitch against White Sox

By The Argus-Press

Friday, August 3, 2007 8:39 AM EDT

Young Caleb Pelikan of Owosso is looking forward to meeting his favorite Detroit Tiger player, Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez.

But that's not the kicker.

The 4-year-old, who will be attending kindergarten this fall in Corunna, will be throwing out the ceremonial first pitch tonight at Comerica Park in Detroit. The Tigers will be hosting the Chicago White Sox for a 7:05 p.m. game.

And Caleb, who will throw out the first pitch on behalf of Camp Casey, a non-profit organization which travels to horseback riding facilities throughout the state to provide a cost-free series of one-day retreats for kids with cancer and their families. Caleb is undergoing treatment for leukemia.

Caleb will be attending the game with his grandfather, Joe Pelikan, who often watches Tigers' games on television with Caleb. Caleb's mother is Jodi Pelikan of Owosso.
