Lucas Milline, a second-grader from St. Stephen Lutheran School in Waterford, will be heading to the state finals for the NFL punt, pass and kick competition at Ford Field on Dec. 5. He placed first at the local and regional divisions, and was one of the top four out of 12 regions to move on to the state finals in his age bracket.

Mary Kay Kohlman of Midland, Dr. Linsey Gold of West Bloomfield and Jessica Jabbori of Bloomfield Hills attend the No Boys Allowed women's retreat in Grand Blanc on Nov. 12. Gold, a fellowship-trained breast surgeon and founder of the Michigan Center for Breast Health, spoke at the event about busting the myths associated with breast cancer.

98.7 AMP Radio's Buckhead, Camp Casey Executive Director Molly Reeser, camper Jacqueline Comyn, Fox 2's Monica Gayle and Gayle's son, Tanner Greve, announce the winners of the Cowboy Chili Cook-Off benefiting Camp Casey, a horseback riding program for kids with cancer. More than 400 people attended the first-time fundraiser, held in downtown Ferndale on Nov. 7. Betsy Roehl of Royal Oak took home the grand prize for her Betsy's Best Chili recipe. Tim and Edie Abramczyk of Detroit wrangled second place, while Woody's Diner in Royal Oak grabbed third.
