'Food For Thought'

BERKLEY — Yad Ezra, 2850 W. 11 Mile Road, presents “Food For Thought,” a lunch and learn program with guest speaker Rabbi Keren Alpert of Temple Beth El, at noon on Aug. 18. The topic will be “Ethics of Tzedaka.”

A kosher dairy lunch will be provided for $7.

RSVP by Aug. 16 by calling (248) 548-3663 or e-mailing Lea@yadezra.org. Attendees are also asked to donate a can of kosher food for families in need.

Yad Ezra has been providing kosher food to needy Jewish families in southeastern Michigan since 1990.

Golf outing helps children

BIRMINGHAM — Coldwell Banker Weir Manuel has announced that its recent golf outing raised more than $2,500 for local charity Camp Casey (www.camp-casey.org), a horse camp and outreach program for children battling cancer.

“We are pleased to be able to help this very worthwhile Michigan-based charity carry forth their wonderful programs supporting children who are conquering cancer,” said Kelly Sweeney, CEO of Coldwell Banker Weir Manuel. “All our employees and sponsors put forth a heartfelt effort to make this outing a success.”
